

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Hurricane Katrina Humanitarian Relief Bicycle Ride

Thanks for your interest in the hurricane relief bicycle ride. We are working closely with the Emory Alumni Association, Emory Recreation Department, and local bicycle clubs to organize a safe and fun ride for everyone involved. All donations will benefit the American Red Cross in their efforts to provide assistance to those affected by Hurricane Katrina.

Preliminary details for the ride:

Saturday, October 1, 2005 (times to be determined)

Distances of 10, 25, and 50 miles

- maps and cue sheets will be provided
- riders from local cycling teams will accompany each group to keep the ride safe
- rest stop for the 25 and 50 mile rides

Start on the Emory campus and finish at Emory McDonough Field, where there will be free food and drink at the tailgate party prior to the Emory University/Washington University soccer game.

Suggested minimum donation of $15 payable to the American Red Cross

We will release further details as they become available on our website:
www.aaronscyclingteam.com

Contact Mark DeZalia at mark.dezalia@emory.edu with questions regarding volunteer opportunities and corporate donations.

Thanks in advance for your involvement,
L5Flyers/Aarons Cycling Team